

The Enumerated Nation

The Great Tale of Enumerations and Bullet Lists

1. In the beginning, all Items were equal under the List
2. A war began between two of their tribes
 - Those who rebelled against the Order of the List
 - i. They started firing bullets at their enemies.
 - ii. They took many shapes
 - They had no rank beyond their Level
 - They took symbols as their emblems
 - Their Levels had great leaders
 - a) Black Bullet
 - b) Circle Bullet
 - c) Dash
 - Those who were Followers of the Order
 - i. They frowned at being outnumbered
 - ii. They had recognizable shapes
 - They kept their ranks at their Level
 - Their Levels had famous members
 - a) The Arabic Numbers
 - b) The Roman Numbers
 - c) The Letters
 - Also called the Alphas
 - Probably the same as the Latins
3. When the war ended, all Items nested in the List according to their Level